Self-Improvement

What should I do about me?

What needs to be done around Me?

If you really want to become a better person, do something to make the world a better place.

What Breaks your heart?

“The things that break your heart are the very things that feed your passions. What are the things that keep you up at night? What are the things that disturb you the most? What do you get most passionate about? What makes you pound the table? What puts you on the edge of your seat?” – Luke Parrott

You don't know what breaks your heart.

You don't know what to do about your broken heart.

17 Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace.” Nehemiah 2:17

Rebuilding the wall would provide:

- Safe community
- Better community
- Livable community

18 I also told them about the gracious hand of my God on me and what the king had said to me. They replied, “Let us start rebuilding.” So they began this good work.

Nehemiah 2:18

28 Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house. 29 Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shekariah, the guard at the East Gate, made repairs. 30 Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters. Nehemiah 3:28-30

What's in front of you?
